Fill in the blanks:

1. Germany, Italy and Japan became the _________________ states in 1922, ______ and 1932 respectively.

2. Who were the leaders of the Fascist Party and the Nazi Party?
   ________________ and ________________.

3. Give two examples of the economic problems brought by the First World War facing Germany and Japan.
   ________________ and ________________.

4. The Nazi Party believed that Germans should rule over other races, and followed a policy of ________________ against the Jews. The Jews were sent to ________________ ________________.

5. Japan was ruled by ________________ government after the First World War. Yet this government could not solve the economic problems.

6. In 1932, the ________________ took control of the government and ruled Japan until 1945.

7. The totalitarian states followed an ________________ foreign policy which threatened peace.

8. The economic difficulties facing Britain and France were further hit by the ______ ________________ of 1929-33.

9. What were the weaknesses in the American economy?
   ________________ and ________________ in the stock market.

10. The United States became the world's biggest ________________ and ______ ______ in the early post- First World War years.