Hairy Lucy was a very nice monster. She was called Hairy Lucy because she had lots of hair. She lived happily with other monsters in the Land of Monsters. One day, Hairy Lucy drove her spaceship as usual to the nearby supermarket. Suddenly, she lost control of her spaceship and drove away from the Land of Monsters at a very high speed. The spaceship crashed. When she woke up, she found that she was in a strange place. There were many tall and well-dressed figures walking everywhere. There were no spaceships. Instead, there were many four-wheels moving machines on the road. She was afraid and did not know what to do.

‘Excuse me, madam, can you tell me where I am?’ Hairy Lucy asked a young lady who was walking towards her.

‘Oh, no! A monster! There’s a monster here,’, the lady screamed and went away.

Hairy Lucy did not understand why the lady was so scared of her. She thought that the young lady was rude and strange. Hairy Lucy kept on walking around this strange place. They sky went dark. She felt tired and hungry. She looked for food but she could not find any. Suddenly, she saw an old man with a bag of food. She went to him and asked ‘Excuse me, sir, I am very hungry. Can you give me something to eat, please?’

The old man was very angry and thought that it was a naughty boy who pretended to be a monster and played tricks on him. So, he shouted ‘Get away, naughty boy. Don’t play tricks on me!’

‘I…I’m not playing tricks on you, sir. I…I’m really very hungry,’, Hairy Lucy explained.

But the old man did not believe her and went away. Poor Hairy Lucy felt dizzy and fell down on the street. At this moment, a boy called Johnny walked pass and saw Hairy Lucy. He picked her up and brought her home. When Hairy Lucy woke up, Johnny kindly gave her some sandwiches and a glass of orange juice. Hairy Lucy was very happy and said ‘Thank you very much!’
Johnny smiled and said ‘You’re welcome!’ Then, they introduced each other and became friends.

‘Oh! Lucy, why do you come to our place?’ Johnny asked.

‘I don’t know. I just come here by accident. Oh! My spaceship!’ Hairy Lucy suddenly remembered her spaceship and shouted.

‘What has happened to your spaceship, Lucy?’ Johnny asked.

‘I have left my spaceship in the park. I need to pick it up. Otherwise, I can’t go back to my home,’ Hairy Lucy explained.

“Okay, Lucy, don’t worry! We’ll go to the park now,’ Johnny said.

Then, they set off to the park. After half an hour, they found the spaceship but it was broken. Hairy Lucy began to cry and said ‘I can’t go back home…’

Johnny comforted her and said ‘Lucy, I can help you repair it.’ They brought the spaceship to Johnny’s house.

The next morning, clever Johnny finished repairing the spaceship. Hairy Lucy was very happy and decided to drive the spaceship back to the Land of Monsters. Before she left, she had said ‘goodbye’ and ‘thank you’ to Johnny. She promised to write a letter to him when she went back home. Hairy Lucy had an unforgettable and happy adventure that she would remember her friend, Johnny.
