歷史 — 主要事件

成立期：

香港中文大學教育學院（School of Education）於1965年成立，是本大學第一個專業學院，成立初期只提供一年制教育文憑課程，收錄大學畢業生，培訓成為專業的高中教師。當時學院租用九龍某大廈的一層樓上課，只有講師三數位，學生二十多名，開設的科目也只有十餘科。

發展期：

到了七十年代中期，香港的中學教育急遽擴展，教育當局對中學教師的專業水平日益重視，並規定在中學任教的大學畢業生必須修畢教育文憑課程，才算是符合檢定升等的資格。社會對學位教師培訓課程的需求因而大增，同時對教育研究專才的需求亦日見顯著。教育學院因應社會轉變，迅速發展。除師生人數不斷增加外，學院更不斷提供多元化的課程和提高課程水平，以及改進各種教學設施。1973年，教育學院遷進大學校園，借用崇基學院的教室上課，並開辦教育學文學碩士課程。

1978年，港府訂定高中及專上教育發展大綱，其時教育學院已取得相當長足的進展：有全職講師十五位，學生五百人，開設的課程有一年全日制及二年在職兼讀制教育文憑，和文學碩士（教育）課程。此後師生人數根據政府的教育發展方案按年遞增，以配合社會發展所需。

教育學院在成立後首二十年皆獨立運作，初為直接向大學教務會負責的單位，至1976-77學年大學改制，教育學院亦轉為直隸大學研究院的一個獨立學部，學院師生雖為大學正式成員，但對校政的參與有別其他教學院系，例如本身沒有院務會或系務會的組職，因而在大學的各級教學及行政架構內，也沒有教育學院的選任代表。

轉變及重組期：

1987-88 學年，教育學院全體教師一致議決向大學建議改制，把教育學院改組為學院 (Faculty of Education)，劃分教育心理學、教育行政與政策、課程與教學三個學系。大學教務會原則上接納此一建議，並把負責校內本科生體育課程的體育部撥歸教育學院轄下，以便發展體育的學術研究和專業培訓。

1988-89 學年，教育學院院長一職改由院內講師互選產生，其餘新制度亦相繼推行。1991-92 學年，教育學院正式成為一個與文、理、社、商、醫等學院享有同等地位的學院。

1993 年，教育學院取得重要的發展，成立了香港教育研究所，提供獨立而設備完善的資源中心，致力教育研究及出版工作，刊物包括中英雙語《教育學報》和《基礎教育學報》，以及專題研究叢書。

1998 年，教育學院更成立大學與學校夥伴合作中心，致力推進大學與學校間健康互惠的關係，務求為個別學校以至整體社群帶來良好的轉變。

現時及未來發展

目前，教育學院共有四個學系及一個學部 — 課程與教學學系、教育行政與政策學系、教育心理學系、體育運動科學系及體育部。經歷一連串的改制，在課程方面亦有不少的轉變及擴展：

Mission Statement

The mission of the Faculty of Education is to provide an enriched environment for students to receive an excellent professional and academic training to become leaders in the field of education. We hope to extend our influence in Hong Kong education by rendering assistance to government and school authorities in school reform with the ultimate goal of providing quality education for our children. We strive to become a leading research centre in educational studies and professional development in education in the Pacific Rim. The Faculty also seeks to contribute towards the blending of Chinese and Western cultures through teaching and research.

History of the Faculty of Education – Key Events

Formative Years:

In 1965, the School of Education was established as the first professional school of the University. During its early year, the School was simply to provide a one-year Diploma in Education Programme to train university graduates to become professional teachers at the senior secondary level. It was run on rented premises in downtown Kowloon, with only a handful of lecturers offering a dozen of courses to some twenty students.

Growth Years:

In the mid-1970s, secondary education in Hong Kong underwent rapid expansion. Local educational authorities began to emphasize the professionalisation of teachers. University students teaching in secondary schools were required to obtain a Diploma in Education before they were fully-qualified and eligible for promotion. Hence, the social demand for postgraduate teacher training increased tremendously. There was also an emerging need for more education researchers. The School of Education responded to such needs by expanding, diversifying, and upgrading curricula and facilities. It moved into Shatin in 1973 and operated in classrooms and offices on the Chung Chi campus. In the same year, a new programme leading to the Master of Arts in Education was offered.

In 1978 when the Hong Kong Government formulated the development plans for senior secondary and tertiary education, the School already had 15 full-time lecturers and about 500 students in the one-year full-time diploma, two-years part-time in-service diploma, and the Master of Arts (Education) programmes. In the years that followed, the School continued to develop in accordance with government educational plans to meet social needs.

For the first 20 years of her existence, the School functioned rather independently, first as a unit directly under the University Senate, and following a major reorganisation of the University in 1976-77, as a separate division within the Graduate School. While the staff and students of the School were full members of the University, the School was different from other academic units in that it did not have any elected representatives in the academic and administrative structure of the University and did not have a faculty board or board of studies.

Period of Change and Reorganisation:

In 1987-88, the School teaching staff unanimously adopted a resolution requesting the University to reorganise the School into a Faculty with three departments, viz., Curriculum and Instruction, Education Administration and Policy, Educational Psychology. The University Senate accepted the proposal in principle, and further resolved to transfer the Physical Education Unit which has been in charge of undergraduate physical education to the School to facilitate research development and professional training in that discipline.

In 1988-89, the School teaching staff elected from among themselves the Director of the School for the first time. Other re-organisation were also carried out step by step. In 1991-92, the School formally became the Faculty of Education having the same status as the Faculties of Arts, Science, Social Science, Business Administration, and Medicine.

In 1993, the Hong Kong Institute of Educational Research was established. This marked a significant development in the Faculty of Education as it provides an independent, well-equipped resource centre dedicated to research and publication. The Faculty bilingual Education Journal, Journal of Basic Education, and series of research monographs are published through the Hong Kong Institute of Educational Research.

In 1998, the Centre for University and School Partnership was established under the Faculty of Education to foster a healthy and mutually beneficial relationship between the University and the school sector to bring desirable change in individual schools as well as in the school community.
